MAGIC BUSH MUSIC LIGHTS UP MILLTHORPE

Two of Australia's well known folk singers, poets and song writers, Jason and Chloe Roweth, are gracing our little village as part of the Banjo Paterson Poetry Festival on Saturday 18 February at Rosebank Gallery and Guesthouse garden from 1pm-6pm.

Jason and Chloe Roweth have reignited and preserved the old bush songs of Australia for over 20 years.

Their inspiration is drawn from the warmth of the old style bush entertainment. The Roweths work with vibrant arrangements of new and old traditional Australian ballads and bush songs which also include early country music, original music, poetry, the famous yarns and dance. These are woven together in Australian tradition using their unique vocals, guitars and mandolin.

Their fun and entertaining performance is infectious and they have a strong reputation as two of the finest interpreters of Australian traditional folk music with record repeat bookings.

Millthorpe's famous local wines are on offer with a beautiful selection of local produce and entry is free.

MILLTHORPE JOINS THE BANJO PATERSON POETRY FESTIVAL

The Millthorpe Business Committee has taken the initiative to co-ordinate events in conjunction with Brand Orange throughout the year.

Joining Orange's Banjo Paterson Poetry Festival from Thursday 16 to Sunday 26 February, the Millthorpe Business Committee produced a co-ordinated effort to bring Jason and Chloe Roweth to present the talented duo's bush songs and poetry to Millthorpe.

Speaking on behalf of the business committee, Chairman, Peter Christie commented that this brings a fresh new event to Millthorpe.

"We are constantly looking at new entertainment for tourists and local people across the district," said Christie.

"The Roweths are extremely talented and bring a new energetic music to Millthorpe.

"Their music is refreshingly open and spacious like the Australian country they sing about.

“I know a lot of local people will be queuing at the Rosebank Guesthouse door to see this magical team sing a variety of bush songs.

“Professionally they have produced over 20 CDs and a couple of DVD packages.”
